

Air is all around us

Air is made up of many different gases. We need them to breathe and cannot live without them.

but ...

We pollute our air so badly that it can make us sick. We have to keep the air clean in order to save our future.